

Residential Rehabilitation Assistance Program - Conversion (RRAP-C) On-Reserve

What is the Residential Rehabilitation Assistance Program - Conversion (RRAP-C) On-Reserve?

RRAP - Conversion On-Reserve provides financial assistance to convert non-residential properties into affordable self-contained housing units.

Who is eligible?

Eligible clients are First Nations and private entrepreneurs owning and converting non-residential properties located on-reserve to create affordable accommodation for low-income households.

Eligible properties must be:

- environmentally safe
- feasibly converted to residential accommodation
- viable based on agreed post-conversion rents.

What assistance is available?

The assistance is a fully forgivable loan, which does not have to be repaid provided the terms and conditions are met. The maximum loan amount is $60,000* per unit.

For northern or remote areas the maximum total amount may be increased by an additional 25 percent.*

Only work related to the conversion and rehabilitation of non-residential properties to create residential units is eligible.

IMPORTANT: Any work carried out before application is approved in writing is not eligible.
